

about Heather

Heather Williams is a long-standing artist and teacher of art. She began teaching drawing in 1985 after she completed her 5-year Apprenticeship with Norwegian Master Painter, Jan Valentin Saether.

Heather Williams

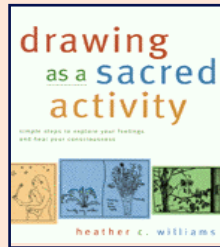

She received her Bachelors Degree in Art and Humanities in 1970 at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh.

Her interest in Consciousness and Psychology brought her to California and to a little known school of Ontology, The Prosperos. She became a Prosperos High Watch Mentor in 1978.

She is the author of Drawing as a Sacred Activity, published by New World Library in 2002.

Her love of teaching led her to the credential program at California State University - San Marcos. Now, as a teacher in the Vista Unified School District, she teaches the Lindamood Bell Reading and Thinking Program.

Art-making is a very personal process and activity for Heather. She employs art primarily for self discovery, personal healing and well being. She believes art is a natural activity for people to balance, heal, connect with the deeper Source of life within.

Beginning Oil Painting Class

Session 1 - Messenger of Beauty

Watch and discuss video about Russian painter, Nicholas Roerich. He regarded beauty as a real motive force in life. This class will provide the internal ground work for our personal journey with oil painting. Students will gesso a canvas today.

Session 2 - Navigating Color Space

Watch and discuss video by Robert Gamblin, founder of Gambelin Artists' Colors. Introduction to the history of the use of color by the old Masters, Impressionist Masters and modern masters. Learn about color theory, hue, temperature. Learn how to lay out your personal palette. Students will begin work on creating their own color wheel plus a chart of tints and shades and warm/cool temperatures.

Session 3 - Alta Vista Botanical Gardens

Located at the top of Brengle Terrace Park in Vista. This is a beautiful outdoor location to work plein aire. Observe a wide variety of vegetation, animal life and expansive vistas. Practice sketching with brush and oil paint or develop of complete painting. If you do not complete the painting on these days, you can work with the site to schedule a personal time to return.

Sessions 4, 5, 6 - The Journey.

Students will work to complete their paintings, and possibly some of us will begin new paintings, applying all that we have been learning about colors, palettes, values, composition, and more. We will discuss the art of finishing a painting and explore a variety of techniques for preserving oil paintings.

Six 4-hour sessions $240.00
Materials: Call me for list of brushes, paints and other materials
